Steve Allison,
Minister

Dear Church Family,

I watch the kids get on and off the bus clinging to their phones. I see people taking their dogs into pet stores and letting their dog pick its food. I see people cruising their exotic sports cars on Friday nights.

Perhaps questions to ponder are... What do you value? To what extent? Ryan Cook encourages us to think about Psalm 135 and ask if we are worshiping something besides God? He says...

The worship of idols was an important part of life for Israel's neighbors. Skilled craftsmen created idols from the finest materials available. Priests would perform elaborate ceremonies to endow the idol with the presence of the god. The idol would then be treated as royalty. The object would be clothed and "fed" with the best, treated with awe and reverence.

Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing praise to his name, for that is pleasant. PSALM 135:3 This reading is a rousing praise psalm to remind Israel that the Lord is greater than the gods of the nations. It was also a stern reminder to Israel that worshiping idols was foolish. These idols were "silver and gold, made by human hands" (v. 15). They had mouths, eyes and ears that did not work (vv. 16-18). These gods could never save or deliver like the Lord. The psalm reminds Israel that the Lord is the One who delivered them from Egypt and brought them into the land of Canaan (vv. 8-12).

Living in the twenty-first century, it is easy to think we are immune to the danger of worshiping idols. But an idol is anything in which we place our allegiance, trust, or hope instead of God. An idol could be our reliance on social media for affirmation or the hope we entrust to politicians. There are hundreds of ways we can fall into the trap of idol worship. An added danger is that we become similar to what we worship (v. 18).

The good news is that if we worship God, we will grow to become like Him. As Paul explained, "And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory" (2 Cor. 3:18).

One of the benefits of praise is that it reminds us who God is. God loves and cares for us more than our cell phone, pet, or fun toy that is the envy of others and puts us at the center of attention. God's love for us is deserving of all of our praise. Whatever you enjoy in life... give all the glory to God.

"Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain."

1 Cor. 15:58

DEEP SEA

JULY 24-28

6:00 – 7:30PM

FOOD – CRAFTS – GAMES – MUSIC & MORE

Our VBS is planned for next month! During the month of June, more information will be sent out as well as sign-up sheets for volunteers. Kids are already starting to register! Please consider if you can fit a couple of nights into your schedule to help!

A crew of deep sea explorers from the Sea Exploration Agency are on a mission to explore the deepest depths of the ocean, in search of knowledge about its Creator – and you're invited too, as a SEA agent in training! As our crew travels deeper and deeper below the surface, experience the wonders of creation, face a few challenges, and discover that knowing our Creator doesn't require a special badge or a submarine.

Our faith grows deeper when we:

- spend time with God
- spend time with others
- use our gifts to serve
- share our stories of faith

Grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ.

*"For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart."
Hebrews 4:12*

In honor of Father's Day, here are 15 principals about being a Dad to encourage each of you great dads:

1. All good parenting begins with a fear of the Lord.

In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence, and his children will have a refuge. [Proverbs 14:26]

2. Fathers set the tone for their household. Make sure your God is at the center of your family.

And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." [Joshua 24:15]

3. The chief job of a father is to teach his kids biblical wisdom at all times.

And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. [Deuteronomy 6:6-9]

4. Always remember that children are a blessing from God.

Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one's youth. Blessed is the man who fills his quiver with them! He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate. [Psalms 127:3-5]

5. Find your parenting strength in God.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go." [Joshua 1:9]

6. Talk to your kids about the Bible and help them to learn scripture. Use scripture as the basis for your parenting.

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. [2 Timothy 3:16-17]

7. God works through fathers to impact their children and families. How is he working through you?

For I have chosen him, that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what he has promised him." [Genesis 18:19]

8. Teach your children wisdom and they will bring you joy.

The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who fathers a wise son will be glad in him. [Proverbs 23:24]

9. Teach your children to lead their lives based on a biblical worldview.

Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it. [Proverbs 22:6]

10. The way you lead your life can be a blessing to your kids. Lead a godly life.

The righteous who walks in his integrity—blessed are his children after him! [Proverbs 20:7]

11. Remember that your choices and actions will impact your kids and their kids and their kids.

The LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation." [Exodus 34:6-7]

12. A good father disciplines his son out of love and with love.

My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the LORD reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights. [Proverbs 3:11-12]

13. Do not provoke your children.

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. [Ephesians 6:4]

14. Parenting is a temporary stewardship. Marriage is forever. The best thing you can do for your kids is to be a good husband.

Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. [Genesis 2:24]

15. God cares about the relationship between fathers and their kids.

And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a decree of utter destruction." [Malachi 4:6]

Happy Father's Day!

MISSION HIGHLIGHT: Christ to China Ministry (C2C)

Wing Wong has worked for over 52 years in China presenting the message of Christ to the people and also to the Chinese people worshipping in New Hampshire. "(Newsletter)

How to pray

- Many young people are being brainwashed into the communist philosophy of atheism and rejecting Christianity. Spreading the Gospel message is becoming more and more of a challenge. Several small church groups are meeting in homes for their safety.
- A music center has opened and several students have signed up for lessons. Please pray that this center will make a good impact to the community and attract more people to Christ and pray for their safety as well.
- Another Bible study in a second-tier city has started. Pray that more disciples can be made and another new church will be planted.
- Most importantly please pray for all the Christians in China for their safety from Communist rule.
- Pray for Wing Wong as he brings the message of Jesus Christ to the Chinese people in New Hampshire and in China.

"Let me start with praise and joy! In the last few weeks our Chinese teams have baptized three in one city, nine in another and last Sunday twenty-one in a beautiful river in China. God is good! Despite the Chinese government's continued efforts in tightening up the screws for religion, the Lord continues to open doors and lead more people into His folds. Please pray for these new babies in Christ that they will get the proper spiritual nourishment and guidance so they may grow to the full measure of Christ."

"Yes, there are always ups and downs but all the downs turned out to be stepping stones for more ups. God is surely in control of all things and in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." (newsletter April 2022)

"What will the next generation of Christians in China be like if we sit back and take the easy road? Will God be pleased? Thank you for laboring with us in prayers and support!" (Wing Wong)

ROOT BEER FLOAT SOCIAL

Donations benefit URICMA

SATURDAY, JULY 9TH

6:00 – 8:00PM

A root beer float social is set from 6 to 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 9, at the Illiniwek Forest Preserve in Hampton. The purpose of this social is to raise funds for the Upper Rock Island County Minister Association, of which our church is a member.

The URICMA is an interfaith group of nine churches that plan and lead several ecumenical worship services yearly. The clergy also have a Good Samaritan “purse” that provides funds in emergency situations. Qualified residents in the Riverdale School District may apply.

“Help from your church is appreciated”, says Joanne Hachtel, of Messiah Lutheran Church. “Volunteers are needed to serve floats and receive donations in one-hour shifts. Coolers filled with ice are needed. If you can help in any way, call at 614-436-3531 or email Joanne at messiahlutheranpb.com. Please include your phone number. Thank you.”
